

Joy Sankar

The Soulful Voice of Bengal

Joy Sankar is a versatile Bengali folk singer, internationally acclaimed for his deep-rooted renditions of traditional music from Bengal, Bangladesh, and Northeast India. A proud disciple of the legendary Utpalendu Choudhury, Joy carries forward a rich musical legacy. From village ballads to modern film scores, his music touches hearts and minds across generations and geographies.

His Journey:

- Started his musical career with the formation of the folk group Dohar in the late 1990s, as one of Dohar's lead vocalists
- Went solo in 2010, creating global collaborations and scores for film and TV
- 25+ years of mesmerizing audiences worldwide with Bengali folk music

International Stages - Taking the Spirit of Bengali Folk to the World:

- NABC, Toronto, CA (2025)
- BKPA 25 Year Celebration, New Jersey, USA (2025)
- NABC, Las Vegas, USA (2022)
- Classical & Dentroni World Music Festival, Catania, Italy (2018)
- India Festical, Kunming, China (2016)
- IEST Alumni Program, Muscat, Oman (2015)

Music for the Screen - Voice and Music Enriching Cinematic Projects:

- Iti Renu (2023) Webseries - Music Director and Playback Singer
- Sudakshina'r Saari (2020) - Music Direction
- Akashi Pullover (2018) - Playback and Music Direction
- Pinky I Love You (2009) - Joint Music Director and Playback Singer
- Fatema (2003) - Featured in as Joy Sankar
- Jibananda Das (2002) Webseries - Music Director and Playback Singer
- Firey Dekha (2001) - Music Direction and Acting

Contact: +91 983-105-2628 joysankarfolk@gmail.com